Production Biographies

Clay James (Director) is a three-time recipient of the American Regional Theatre Award for Outstanding Direction and Choreography, winner of the Moss Hart Award and the New Hampshire Theatre Award for Outstanding Direction and Choreography, and currently serves as Coordinator of Musical Theatre for Montclair State University. He also currently serves as Master Specialist in Musical Theatre for the Shanghai Institute of Visual Arts in Shanghai, China. For MSU he has directed, staged, and/or choreographed Parade, A Grand Night for Singing, Cabaret, And the World Goes Round, The Full Monty, A Bernstein Tribute, Crazy for You, Side Show, Sweeney Todd, Sweet Charity, A Chorus Line, Closer than Ever, Kiss of the Spider Woman, An Evening for the Arts, 42nd Street, The Producers, and Anything Goes. Other directorial and/or choreographic assignments include those for St. Louis Muni Opera, Playhouse in the Park, North Shore Music Theatre, Paper Mill Playhouse, the Kenley Players, Jones Beach Theatre, Shores Performing Arts Center, the Pink Garter Theatre, Resorts International, Walt Disney Productions, Mt. Washington Valley Theatre Company, and the Zeiterion Theatre, among many others. As a performer he has appeared in more than 40 productions on Broadway, Off-Broadway, national tours, regional theater, and summer stock. James's education includes a BFA in Theatre with a minor in Music and an MFA in Directing from Florida Atlantic University. He is an active member in Actors' Equity Association, Screen Actors Guild, and Stage Directors and Choreographers and is proud to be an honorary member of the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi.

Kim Whittam (Choreographer) received her MFA in Dance from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts and her BFA in Dance from Montclair State University. She is currently on the faculty at MSU, where her responsibilities include teaching, choreographing, and facilitating the newly developed low-residency MFA in Dance. She has also been on the faculty at Capezio/Peridance Center in New York City, teaching and choreographing for the past ten years. Her most recent activities include collaborating with composer Angelo Bello on Lorem Ipsum for inclusion in the 2017 New York Philharmonic Biennial season and working as guest faculty and choreographer at Bucknell University. The Full Monty is her fourth project in collaboration with MSU's Musical Theatre program, having previously been part of the creative team on A Chorus Line, West Side Story, and Carrie: The Musical. Whittam has worked extensively as a performer, choreographer, and producer, most notably in works presented at Symphony Space, St. Mark's, Dance Theater Workshop, Merce Cunningham, HEREArt, and Lincoln Center, among many others, as well as in television, film, and music videos.

Sarah Brett England (Music Director) has music directed/accompanied hundreds of shows throughout the country with credits at the Public Shakespeare Initiative, Pan Asian Rep, Barrington Stage Company, Creede Repertory Theatre, Surflight Theatre, Half Moon Theatre, River Valley Rep, Texas Family Musicals, New Harmony Theatre, Ocean City Theatre Company, Nebraska Theatre Caravan, Circa '21 Dinner Playhouse, Allenberry Playhouse, Dancebreak 2010, and on board P&O Australia's Pacific Dawn cruise ship. She has music directed multiple productions at MSU, including The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, Sing for Your Supper, Hair, Mad Forest, and the annual BFA Musical Theatre Senior Showcase. She has written arrangements for multiple musicals, including Halloween Hullabaloo. England received her BA in Conducting and Music Theory from the College of William & Mary. SarahBrettEngland.com

Barry Spatz (Conductor) is thrilled to conduct his third show at MSU. He previously conducted Carrie: The Musical and The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. He currently is a staff accompanist at MSU, where he plays for many classes, lessons, and productions. He also works in the NJ/NY area as a musical director and accompanist for various musical theater productions as well as accompanying other freelance musicians. He has a master of music from New Jersey City University and a bachelor of music from Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University. He thanks Greg Dlugos and Sarah Brett England for their endless musical knowledge and support.

Gregory J. Dlugos (Music Supervisor) has worked extensively as music director, conductor, pianist, composer, arranger, and orchestrator for many Broadway shows, tours, and Fortune 500 companies. With a bachelor of music in Organ Performance and a master of arts degree in Composition and Theory, he is music supervisor of the Musical Theatre program at MSU, where he has music directed and/or conducted numerous productions. Dlugos has a double-appointment at MSU, conducting MSU Encore for the Department of Theatre and Dance and teaching in the John J. Cali School of Music. He has developed a relationship with the Mostly Mozart Festival at Lincoln Center in New York. He participated in the world premiere of David Lang's choral piece the public domain and premiered it as a new work at the festival this past summer.

Rick Sordelet (Fight and Intimacy Director) and his son, Christian Kelly-Sordelet, are the creators of Sordelet, Inc., an exciting new stage combat company bringing over 30 years of action movement experience to the entertainment community. Sordelet has worked on 72 Broadway productions, including Disney's The Lion King and Disney's Beauty and the Beast, as well as the national tours of Disney's Beauty and the Beast and Les Misérables. His credits include 52 first-class productions worldwide. Opera credits include Cyrano (starring Placido Domingo) at the Metropolitan Opera, Don Carlo (directed by Nicholas Hytner) and Heart of the Soldier at San Francisco Opera, and Cold Mountain, Don Giovanni, Roméo et Juliette, and La Fanciulla del West at Santa Fe Opera. He has worked on films such as The Game Plan, Dan in Real Life, Brave New Jersey, and The Sounding. On television, he and his son worked as stunt coordinators for the hit CBS comedy series Kevin Can Wait and spent 12 years as stunt coordinators for Guiding Light. He is an instructor at the Yale School of Drama and a board member for the Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey. Sordelet received the Edith Oliver Award for Sustained Excellence at the Lucille Lortel Awards from the League of Off-Broadway Theatres and Producers, and a Jeff Award for Best Fight Direction for Romeo and Juliet at Chicago Shakespeare Theater. He is the author of the play Buried Treasure and the cowriter of the upcoming feature film 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea, directed by Bryan Singer. www.sordeletink.com

Ariana Papin-Tarquini (Costume Designer) is a senior Costume and Sound Design major. She has previously been a costume and sound designer on dance shows and designed both sound and costumes for the last two New Works Initiative (NWI) shows. Later this year, she will be board operator for The Mystery of Edwin Drood and a designer on the NWI.

Ines Zapata (Lighting Designer) is a senior in the Theatre Production/Design program at MSU. Her credits include assistant lighting designer for Works-a-Foot 2016 and Danceworks 2017, lighting designer for Works-a-Foot 2017 and Danceworks 2018, assistant lighting designer for Anything Goes (2018), and co-lighting designer for Dance Collage 2017. She also worked as a production intern at Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in Beckett, MA, in 2017 and worked as a mentee with Al Crawford in New York City in 2018.

Melissa Gargiulo (Hair/Makeup Designer) is a senior majoring in Costume Design and Technology as well as receiving her Bobbi Brown makeup artistry certification. She recently spent her summer working with the Texas Shakespeare Festival, acting as the costume shop intern for the 2018 season. Her recent credits include designing for So You Think You Can Dance's Stacey Tookey's premiere dance piece, "Gift," at MSU's fall dance concert Works-a-Foot as well as working as a stitcher for NETworks national tour of The Sound of Music. She would like to thank her family for their constant support.

Victoria Darr (Production Stage Manager) is a junior Theatre Production/Design BFA major, with a concentration in stage management. She was previously production stage manager for Civics and Humanities for Non-Majors. Her assistant stage manager productions include The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, West Side Story, Michigan Murders, and Twelfth Night. The Full Monty is her second PSM production at MSU, and it is truly a memorable one.
